

ORGANIZATION

Chair: The council chair shall be appointed by the APWA President. The chair is responsible for overall direction and management of the council. The term of office for the chair shall be one year but may be reappointed for a second year by the APWA President. No member of the council can serve more than a maximum of six years including a maximum of two years as the chair. The chair will represent the CPWC Council as a voting member of the Certification Commission.

Vice Chair: The council may select a vice chair. The vice chair must be an appointed member of the council. The vice chair will serve as the chair in the event that the council chair cannot attend and/or participate in a meeting. Selection of a vice chair does not guarantee the individual will be appointed by the APWA President to the chair position when the position becomes vacant.

Members: The APWA President shall appoint up to six voting members.
